"If you want something, go get it. Period." - The Pursuit of Happiness

OVERVIEW

Gandhi Maniam is a paralegal with Smith Anderson's Corporate practice and works with attorneys who support our start-up and emerging growth company and venture capital firm clients.

Gandhi has more than 12 years of legal experience, including practicing law as an attorney at a law firm in Malaysia, where he handled civil and commercial disputes before the subordinate and superior courts of Malaysia. He has also worked as a lead investigator in labor and employment litigation matters for a law firm based in Maryland.

Gandhi is happiest on his travels, when strangers become friends and quaint towns become home away from home.
