2018 OFCCP DEVELOPMENTS: What Federal Contractors Need to Know for 2019

A live webinar presented by Chris Northup, Ellen Shong & Associates and Kimberly J. Korando, Smith Anderson

In 2018 the Trump-era OFCCP began issuing policy changes that provide indications how the agency is changing its enforcement approach and where the agency is headed. This year the OFCCP issued nine directives that will guide the agency's enforcement agenda and provide guidance on how the agency interacts with contractors.

The OFCCP has affirmed its continuing focus on pay equity while also making clear its intent to address other contractor compliance efforts including veterans and individuals with disabilities.
