AMERICAN COUNSEL ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP NAMED FOR JAMES K. DORSETT, III

12.10.2012

RALEIGH, N.C. – At its annual meeting in Chicago, the American Counsel Association (ACA) established a new scholarship in honor of Smith Anderson partner James K. Dorsett, III. Mr. Dorsett previously served the ACA as president and as secretary-treasurer. The Cohn-Dorsett Scholarship, also named in honor of past ACA president Stanley Cohn of New Orleans, will be awarded annually to a law student who exhibits high academic achievement, public service and financial need.

About James K. Dorsett, III

Mr. Dorsett practices in the areas of commercial, tort and insurance litigation. His recent work has involved the representation of corporations in contract and covenant not to compete cases, the defense of manufacturers in products liability actions, and parties in claims regarding estates. Mr. Dorsett also represents property owners in appeals from excessive tax valuations. A certified mediator, his work extends to alternative dispute resolution and counseling.

About the American Counsel Association

Established in 1928, the ACA is an international association of law firms with members from the U.S., Canada, the U.K. and other countries that meet each year in conjunction with the American Bar Association's Midyear and Annual Meetings.
