

News & Trending

NEWS

DAVID HAYDEN MODERATES ROUND TABLE WITH CONGRESSWOMAN ELLMERS AND THE NORTH CAROLINA DEFENSE BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

12.06.2013

Raleigh, N.C. – On November 7, 2013, David Hayden, a lawyer in Smith Anderson's Government Contracts practice, moderated a discussion between Congresswoman Renee Ellmers, representing the Second District in North Carolina, and 15 members of the North Carolina Defense Business Association (NCDBA). As the Legislative Committee Chair for the Board of Directors of NCDBA, David led a discussion on the effects of sequestration and the recent federal government shutdown. In addition, the group considered strategies for directing more government contracting projects to North Carolina companies.

David has extensive experience in government contracting, general corporate and employment law. He regularly advises companies and their directors and officers on corporate governance matters and other general corporate and business topics. He also represents a variety of defense contractors, advising on a broad range of federal contracting corporate issues such as International Trafficking in Arms Regulations (ITAR), corporate ethics and organizational conflicts of interest (OCI) compliance issues. For more information on David, please visit his bio at www.SmithLaw.com.

The NCDBA provides information, connections and networking opportunities to its members to build relationships and promote defense related business within the state of North Carolina. For more information, please visit www.ncdba.com.

PROFESSIONALS

David L. Hayden

PRACTICE AREAS

Government Contracting