

News & Trending

NEWS

DAVID HAYDEN PRESENTS AT THE 18TH ANNUAL GOVERNMENT CONTRACTING UPDATE

12.06.2013

Raleigh, N.C. – On November 19, 2013, David Hayden, a lawyer in Smith Anderson's Government Contracts practice, spoke at the 18th Annual Government Contracting Update to provide businesses in the Research Triangle Region with an assessment of the effects of sequestration and government shutdowns, as well as strategies for complying with several government contracting issues that include Ethics and Self Reporting, False Claims Act, Teaming Agreements, Bid Protests and VA Procurement. Smith Anderson presented the event in partnership with the North Carolina Defense Business Association, Dixon Hughes Goodman and Wells Fargo.

David has extensive experience in government contracting, general corporate and employment law. He regularly advises companies and their directors and officers on corporate governance matters and other general corporate and business topics. He also represents a variety of defense contractors, advising on a broad range of federal contracting corporate issues such as International Trafficking in Arms Regulations (ITAR), corporate ethics and organizational conflicts of interest (OCI) compliance issues. For more information on David, please visit his bio at www.SmithLaw.com.

Each year, the Annual Government Contracting Update features speakers who discuss strategies that can help small and large government contractors manage issues they might be facing in that year's current economic environment. This year's event and its speakers followed the theme of "How to Survive in a Challenging Economy" and focused on helping businesses succeed in a turbulent fiscal environment. For more information, please visit the event page online.

PROFESSIONALS

David L. Hayden

PRACTICE AREAS

Government Contracting