

News & Trending

NEWS

BILL NELSON CO-AUTHORS 2014 GUIDEBOOK TO NORTH CAROLINA TAXES

12.31.2013

Raleigh, N.C. – Smith Anderson partner Bill Nelson has co-authored the 2014 edition of the "Guidebook to North Carolina Taxes" recently published by CCH. Updated annually, the Guidebook provides an overview of all North Carolina taxes, including all legislative, judicial and administrative developments. It also analyzes and explains the differences between federal and North Carolina law and provides an overview of 2013 North Carolina tax changes. The publication is available for purchase online at www.cchgroup.com.

About Bill Nelson

Bill Nelson began co-authoring the Guidebook in 2002, the first year CCH selected outside authors to write the content, and has authored or co-authored all editions since 2002. As a partner at Smith Anderson, Bill practices in the areas of federal, state and local tax planning and advocacy for businesses and tax-exempt entities. He also advises privately held companies in corporate law matters and business transactions. His diverse experience includes planning and structuring corporate acquisitions and tax-free reorganizations, tax planning for private equity funds, partnerships and limited liability companies, general tax planning for businesses and international tax planning. For more information on Bill, please visit his bio at SmithLaw.com.

PROFESSIONALS

William W. Nelson

PRACTICE AREAS

Tax

INDUSTRIES

Nonprofits