

News & Trending
NEWS

MIKE WEDDINGTON APPOINTED TO THE AAA NATIONAL PANEL OF MEDIATORS

09.02.2014

Raleigh, NC - Mike Weddington, Of Counsel at Smith Anderson, has been appointed to the American Arbitration Association (AAA) national panel of mediators. AAA mediators must have a minimum of 10 years of senior-level experience in business, industry or a profession; be certified or have completed mediator training; and have an education degree and/or professional license(s) appropriate to the applicant's field of expertise. The AAA is a not-for-profit corporation with offices throughout the United States and has a long history and experience in the field of alternative dispute resolution, providing services to individuals and organizations wishing to resolve conflicts out of court.

"Qualified mediators are the heart of the mediation process and the AAA is committed to offering a Panel of Mediators in which parties can have the utmost confidence." – American Arbitration Association

Mike has been certified by the North Carolina Dispute Resolution Commission as a Superior Court mediator for over 20 years and provides mediation services in North Carolina Superior Court and U. S. District Court cases, both as a court-appointed mediator and as a party-selected mediator.

About Mike Weddington

Mike Weddington has been involved with commercial litigation throughout his 40-plus year career as a lawyer at Smith Anderson, representing organizations and individuals across the spectrum of commercial and business disputes. He also provides advice on a variety of construction law matters, with a particular focus on payment and performance bond issues. Mike also represents licensed professionals in both licensing and disciplinary matters before state licensing boards, with an emphasis on medical professionals. In addition, he provides advice on intellectual property matters, particularly those involving trademark issues. For more information, please visit Mike's bio at www.SmithLaw.com.

About Smith Anderson

Since our founding in 1912, Smith Anderson has grown to more than 120 attorneys and is the largest law firm headquartered in North Carolina's Research Triangle area. We serve clients ranging in size from large public companies to emerging growth businesses, providing a full range of legal services to assist our clients in accomplishing their goals. The knowledge and experience of our attorneys make us well-positioned to handle the litigation and business matters that our clients face. For more information, please visit www.SmithLaw.com.

PRACTICE AREAS

Appellate Advocacy

Commercial Litigation

Real Estate Litigation

Technology Transactions

