

News & Trending
NEWS

KIMBERLY SWINTOSKY RECEIVES 2011 WOMEN EXTRAORDINAIRE AWARD

01.11.2012

RALEIGH, N.C. – Smith Anderson law firm is pleased to announce that Kimberly Quarles Swintosky, a partner in the firm's Commercial Transactions and Tax and Estate Planning practice areas, is a recipient of Business Leader Magazine's prestigious 2011 Women Extraordinaire Award. Ms. Swintosky was one of approximately 1700 nominees chosen for distinguished leadership in business as a legal professional and for significant contributions to the community through her work with a number of Wake County not-for-profits, including the Boys & Girls Clubs and the Carolina Ballet.

Ms. Swintosky focuses her practice on privately owned businesses and their owners. As an attorney and CPA, she advises clients with respect to general business and contract law, mergers and acquisitions as well as federal and state income, gift and estate taxation. Before joining Smith Anderson, Ms. Swintosky worked as a tax consultant with Arthur Andersen, LLP. She is a North Carolina Certified Public Accountant.

Each year, Business Leader Magazine honors the top women business leaders of the South through the Women Extraordinaire Awards. Winners are either C-level executives, business owners, or civic /community leaders in their regions and have demonstrated significant business achievement and community involvement.

About Smith Anderson

Representing diverse businesses with local, state, national and international interests, our lawyers focus on building and strengthening relationships by understanding our clients' businesses and customizing our legal solutions accordingly. Smith Anderson is one of the largest North Carolina law firms and is the largest Research Triangle Park area firm.

PROFESSIONALS

Kimberly Quarles Swintosky

PRACTICE AREAS

Tax

Trusts and Estates