Mr. Patterson emphasized how the Firm’s central RTP location and collaborative work culture directly benefits the clients they serve. “Frankly, the Research Triangle is one of the best markets in the country and has been for a long time,” Patterson said. “There are a tremendous number of new clients coming in, investment money and start-ups coming around and successful, international companies headquartered here or having a major presence here. It’s been a fabulous place to practice law. It’s not been necessary for us to go out of state. In fact, there are lots of people coming into the state, so that should tell you that we’re in the right place at the right time.”
