

News & Trending

NEWS

JENNIFER MARKHAM HAS ARTICLE PUBLISHED IN NORTH CAROLINA MEDICAL GROUP MANAGERS NEWSLETTER

07.05.2011

Raleigh, NC (July 5, 2011) – An article written by Jennifer Markham, a lawyer with Smith Anderson’s Health Care practice group, has been published in the third quarter 2011 edition of the North Carolina Medical Group Managers Newsletter. The title of the article is Physician Reporting Under North Carolina Law. The article explains situations in which a physician is required to report certain information to government officials and some instances in which a physician may report certain information to government officials.

Ms. Markham practices in the areas of health care and insurance. Her experience includes medical practice formation; certificate of need compliance; Medicare compliance; medical staff issues; domestic insurance company formation; foreign insurance company admission; and North Carolina insurance law compliance.