

News & Trending

NEWS

MITCH ARMBRUSTER SERVES AS PANELIST AT THE 9TH ANNUAL STATE AND LOCAL PROCUREMENT SYMPOSIUM

04.30.2014

Raleigh, N.C. – On April 25, 2014, during the 9th Annual State and Local Procurement Symposium, Smith Anderson Partner Mitch Armbruster spoke on a panel addressing public record requests. The event was held at the Grove Park Inn in Asheville, N.C., and hosted by the American Bar Association (ABA) Section of State and Local Government Law. The panel led an in-depth discussion of state freedom of information laws from the perspectives of government, contractors and their counsel.

About Mitch Armbruster

Mitch Armbruster practices in the areas of commercial and administrative litigation. He has handled a wide variety of administrative agency disputes, bid protests, regulatory enforcement proceedings, public records disputes and complex commercial litigation cases. He has litigated matters before various state agencies and boards and the North Carolina Office of Administrative Hearings, and has tried cases in North Carolina state and federal courts, as well as the North Carolina Business Court. For more information, please visit Mitch's bio at SmithLaw.com.

PROFESSIONALS

J. Mitchell Armbruster

PRACTICE AREAS

Government Relations