ROBERT REHM ELECTED AS CHAIRMAN OF THE NORTH CAROLINA MUSEUM OF HISTORY ASSOCIATES

06.06.2012

RALEIGH, N.C. – Robert Rehm, a partner at Smith Anderson, has been elected to the position of Chairman of the North Carolina Museum of History Associates. The group primarily engages in spreading awareness about the North Carolina Museum of History, as well as attracting donations for the organization. Mr. Rehm has been involved with the group since 2003 and is grateful for his membership as an opportunity to get to know the state of North Carolina.

The North Carolina Museum of History has collected and preserved artifacts and other historical materials relating to the history and heritage of North Carolina for well over a century. Beginning with a single hall showcasing a small collection donated by Fredrick Augustus Olds, the museum now contains over a quarter of a million items and has won several awards over the last year alone, including the coveted “Excellence in Exhibition Special Achievement Award” from the American Association of Museums.
