SMITH ANDERSON RECEIVES CORPORATE VOLUNTEER AWARD FROM STEPUP MINISTRY

10.24.2011

Raleigh, NC (October 24, 2011) – The Law Firm of Smith Anderson has been recognized as a Corporate Volunteer award winner in 2011 by StepUP Ministry. StepUP Ministry is an interfaith community that partners with more than 500 program participants each year in the shared goal of self-sufficiency. This goal is accomplished through two programs: The StepUP Jobs Program and the StepUP Life Skills Program.

"Smith Anderson strongly supports StepUP Ministry's primary objective of providing stable jobs, stable homes, and stable families through its self-sufficiency, life skills, and jobs programs, and, as a result, our firm takes great pride in providing legal services that help to further that commendable objective," explains Robert Rehm, Smith Anderson partner.

Smith Anderson received this recognition for demonstrating teamwork, collaboration, commitment, and creativity in efforts to achieve the goals of StepUP Ministry and its programs through pro bono legal counsel. The firm and its lawyers were recognized for exceeding expectations in their involvement with StepUP Ministry by providing legal services of the highest quality and proving to be dependable and valuable ambassadors for the ministry.
