SMITH ANDERSON WELCOMES JESSICA WEST TO ITS PARTNERSHIP

01.03.2020

(Raleigh, N.C.) Smith Anderson, the largest law firm headquartered in the Research Triangle region, is pleased to announce that Jessica West has been admitted to the firm's partnership, effective January 1, 2020. Jessica joined the firm in 2012 and focuses her practice on diverse corporate and commercial transactions, including debt and equity financings, private equity investments, investment fund formations, mergers and acquisitions and other complex commercial transactions.

Jessica represents private equity funds and public and private companies on corporate, finance and M&A transactions across numerous industry sectors. She also regularly counsels clients on regulatory, corporate, partnership, commercial and related matters.

Jessica is admitted to the North Carolina and New York state bars, and she is a graduate with honors from the University of North Carolina School of Law.
